

TO Love... TO THE End

PLANNING A GOOD DEATH

RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY 2011

Every human being has a special dignity regardless of age, sickness or disability. Our dignity lies in our being, our existing. We possess dignity not because we can think, make or do but simply because we are human.